SPORTS

PRINTERS WILL SMASH SPHERE ON THE SEAM

Again the type-dingers will play ball. Tomorrow, the evening papers can fight it out, as the Stars and the Bulletins are to play the first game of the afternoon. The Advertiser and the Paradise should furnish good baseball in the second contest.

This is just the combination for which the fans have been waiting. From the way the teams have played so far this season it appears that the two evening papers will have a close match. Neither has showed a great deal of form against the other teams, but each should make a scrap for it when they line up against each other.

The Advertiser and the Paradise have both put up good baseball, the Paradise not having their winning streak, as the Advertiser have, but still having the men who can field the ball and hit it right on the seam.

The first game will start at 1 p. m. at Baseball Park.

ASAM FOR LEGISLATURE

"What's the matter with Robert Asam, the treasurer of the Riverside League, for the Legislature?" asked W. T. Raposo, the official scorer of that league, to a representative of this paper yesterday. Raposo was speaking on the candidates of Bernard Kelekolio and Wm. H. Crawford at the time, and he made the statement that he would rather see the bulldog of the Riverside run for the House than the two candidates who have announced themselves for the office publicly.

"I have no doubt that Asam will receive the support of a good many citizens, as he is an honest and fair man," said Raposo. "He has worked hard for the public's benefit in running the affairs of the League at Ala Park and deserves reward for his services. I, for one, a voter of the Twelfth Precinct, Fifth District, will vote for him in case he decides to run for the House."

Asam will be a strong candidate among the fans and if he decides to run for the Legislature will no doubt receive their support. He is also popular among those who know him and is a nice and pleasant gentleman. He is a Republican and a part-Hawaiian.

A. K. Vierra, vice president of the Riverside, has also announced himself as a candidate for Supervisor from the Fifth District. He made the statement yesterday that he was going to run as a Supervisor and believed that his friends would help to elect him. Vierra was the former president of the Kahanamoku League and is said to have strong backing behind him among the Portuguese voters.

SANITS, JR., FORFEIT

The St. Louis Juniors lost yesterday afternoon in a game played at Ala Park, with the Kahanamoku, on a huke, as they thought they had a hovel in the ninth inning, when the score was a draw of 3 to 3, and forfeited the match rather than go on. A decision at first being called caused all the trouble.

Up to the time when the game was abandoned the playing was fast and snappy.

The teams:
Kahanamoku—Ah Tan, 1f; Ah Kong, rf; Harold Lishman, cf; Robert Crowell, cf; Alex. Asam, p; A. Wong, 1b; James Aylett, ss; Sam Awai, 3b; Sam Kahanamoku, 2b; Yutaka, cf.
St. Louis—Tom Yen, cf; Joe Smith, p; Eddie S., 1b; J. Westbrook, 2b; Wm. Wells, ss; Joe Aloha, 3b; G. Holt, rf; Soichi, cf; Ichi, 1f.
Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
St. Louis 1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0—3
Kahanamoku 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0—3
Umpire—Ah Sam.
Scorer—H. C. Wong.

WILL BOX TONIGHT

The boxing bout this evening at the Orpheum between Jockey Willis and Ah Sam, the Chinese pugilist, will be held as scheduled in spite of the opposition of the Civic Feds, and others. The scrap has occupied the boards for some time. It is being used more as a test affair by the men locally interested in boxing than any event which has been held for some time, and certainly foreshadows some revival of the little game here if it is allowed to go on.

That it will go all right, the promoters are certain. They claim that Breckons has said he will not interfere.

Preliminary goes will be held besides a bag-punching exhibition by Pete Stanley. Program starts at 8:30.
